Cheer Each Other On – The Meeting House Kids

Key Verse

“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”
– Romans 10:15

Start: On the Road to Damascus

Supplies:

- Flashlight (optional)

Invite your child for this time together:

- Play pretend that you are traveling along a road to a town called Damascus.
- Pretend an animal is coming along and you need to run, slow down because you are tired, or jump over holes in the road.
- As you go, if wanted, flash a light and drop to the ground.
- Let them know that this is what happened to a man named Saul in today's story.

Watch:

Watch this week's video.

Prayer:

Write out prayers for help and thanks onto sticky notes. Choose a wall or special place in your home to stick them. Make these a visual reminder of what your family is praying and thankful for over the week or month.

Craft: Key Verse Picture Frames

Supplies:

- Key Verse Picture Frame activity page
- Crayons or markers
- Stickers (optional)

Prep: print the Key Verse picture frame and cut out.

- Invite your child to decorate the picture frame.
- Read the text on the frame with them.
- As they decorate, talk about the Bible story.
- Ask them who they would like to put a picture of in the frame.

Key Verse Activity

Help your child learn the Key Verse using the actions below:

Hint:

Help your child know that the Good News is that Jesus came to show us God's love, rescue us from sin and teach us how to live and serve.

"How [hold your hands palms up as if asking a question]
beautiful [point at your face and smile]
are the feet [stamp your feet]
of those [point to others]
who bring [pull your arms back in towards you]
good news!" [pump your fists in the air]
Romans 10:15 [open hands like a book]
